Sister Helen Prejean is known all around the world for her generous effort just to save the lives of others from a death penalty. In 1982 she started her own corresponding with a man called Patrick Sonnier who is sentenced for death in the electric chair of Louisiana's Angola for the death of 2 teenagers. Sonnier asked sister Helen to be his spiritual advisor, Helen said she will. Before Patrick died Helen came to know a man who was terrified as he had once been terrifying.

Helen's vocation was to stop death penalties and the electric chair, because of her people do not die when there sentenced.
