

The story of Helen Prejean

Helen Prejean's vocation was to help the poor, the suffering and sinners. Helen started her religious life when she was around 18 and chose to join the Sisters of St Joseph , she had to get used to a very different life. There were times of prayer and work. Helen didn't care about being popular she continued doing what she believed was right. Helen spoke to everyone she could that were God`s children. Helen started her religious life when she was 18 and chose to join the sisters of St Joseph of Medaille.

By Richie and Eve

