

Holy Week

Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a donkey.
We call this day Palm Sunday.

People waved palm leaves and shouted "Hosanna!"

Jesus went to the Temple, but found that people had turned it into a market place. He was very upset.

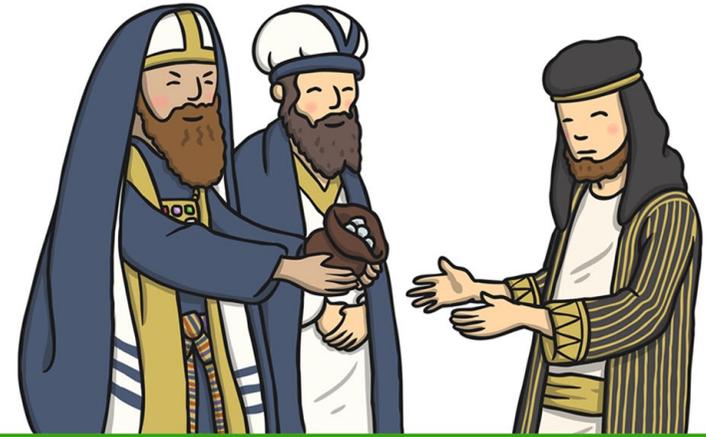

A woman had some very expensive perfume in a jar.
She poured it over Jesus, in an act of kindness.

Jesus went to pray on the Mount of Olives. He asked the disciples to keep watch for him, but they fell asleep.

Soldiers arrived. Judas kissed Jesus on the cheek, and the soldiers arrested Jesus!

A man nearby tried to stop the soldiers, and drew his sword. He cut off a servant's ear. Jesus shouted "No more of this!" He healed the man's ear.

The disciples all ran away, but Peter followed to see where Jesus was being taken. He didn't want anyone to know who he was, in case he was arrested too.

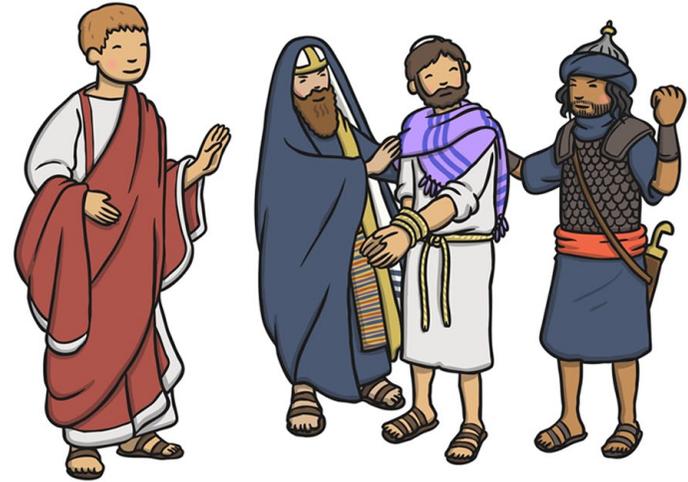

Whilst Peter warmed himself by the fire, 3 people said they knew he was a follower of Jesus. Each time he said he didn't know who Jesus was. Then the cockerel crowed 3 times!

The sky turned black. Jesus died.
We remember this on Good Friday.

On Sunday, Mary Magdalene and another lady called Mary, went to the tomb. They were shocked to see the stone had been rolled away from the tomb entrance.

There was an angel inside the tomb. He smiled and said
"Jesus is risen just like he said he would!"
