Human Development

This Science task is all about the changes that occur in humans as they develop into old age. Read through the PowerPoint which details the 6 different stages of growth and development in humans, then create your own human timeline ordering the 6 stages of growth and describe the changes that occur during each stage.