

Lockdown Poetry:

Writing Haikus

What is a Haiku?

A haiku is a traditional form of Japanese poetry. Haikus do not require a rhyming pattern but they do require a particular pattern of syllables.

俳句

Next

Do you know what a syllable is?

Next

What is a Haiku?

Syllables are the separate beats/parts of words.
Can you work out how many syllables are in these words?
Clap them out as you say them if it helps.

Next

butterfly

The word
'butterfly' has three syllables.

ball

The word 'ball'
has one syllable.

watermelon

The word
'watermelon' has four syllables.

candle

The word 'candle'
has two syllables.

Click each answers.

Next

What is a Haiku?

Look at each of these lockdown haikus. Can you recognise a common syllable pattern within them both?

Together

Although apart now,
we are in this together;
never forget that.

Haikus always have three lines of poetry with:

5

syllables

7 syllables

5

syllables

Read each of the haikus again.
This time, clap the syllable pattern as you read.

Next

Lockdown Haiku Examples

Read and discuss this lockdown haiku.

Keeping in Touch

Communicating
in high-tech ways with loved ones
so our world can heal.

Does it have a 5-7-5 syllable pattern?

What is Next about?

How does Next you feel?

Next

Lockdown Haiku Examples

Read and discuss this lockdown haiku.

Keeping in Touch

Communicating
in high-tech ways with loved ones
so our world can heal.

Does it have a 5-7-5 syllable pattern?

What is the poem about?

How does it make you feel?

Next

Creating a Haiku

Rearrange these words to create a haiku about learning at home during school closures.

My

Teaching

clo

Next

new

now

School

dad

is

is my today.

me

skills.

teacher!

Remember the 5-7-5 syllable
pattern.

5

syllables

7 syllables

5

syllables

Hint

Done!

Creating a Haiku

Rearrange these words to create a haiku about learning at home during school closures.

~~My~~

Teaching

closed

new

~~now~~

School

~~dad~~

~~is~~

is ~~my~~

today.

me

skills.

~~teacher!~~

My

dad

is now

my teacher!

Here's an idea to help you. Remember the 5-7-5 syllable pattern.

5

syllables

7 syllables

5 syllables

Hint

Done!

Creating a Haiku

Did you manage to rearrange the words so that it had the correct numbers of syllables to fit the 5-7-5 syllable pattern to make a haiku?
You could have done it like this...

School

is closed

today.

Mu

dad

is now

my teacher!

Teaching

me

new skills.

Next

Planning a Haiku

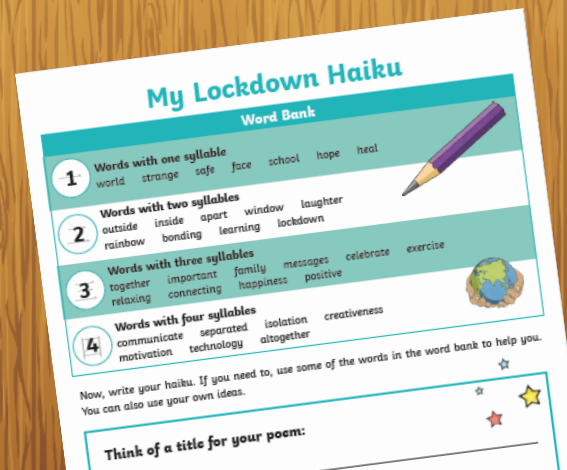

Now, write your own haiku about your time in lockdown.
What could your haiku be about?
Click on each note to reveal an idea for your Haiku.

Next

Writing a Haiku

Use our Lockdown Haiku Writing Frame to write and illustrate your haiku. You could even write a collection of haikus and perform them for the people you live with.

Try out some ideas. Clap the syllables of your haiku lines to check that you have the correct 5-7-5 pattern.

Next

