Writing task:

King Midas asks Dionysus to grant him a wish of that everything he touches would turn to gold. This wish is granted, but what could the outcome be? Is this always going to be positive?

Write a section of the story 2 weeks later, what could have happened?

He could become very rich? But will he be able to eat.... A golden burger may not be tasty!!

You could write this in a comic strip style similar to the picture above.
