This is Joe. Joe is a very happy boy who loves life. He enjoys certain subjects at school like Sums and Art but he doesn't like Reading very much.

He particularly likes getting involved in school plays and dramas. This is Joe in his first school play.

Joe loves his family. This is Joe's family at Christmas time. There is his Mum, his Uncle and his Grandma. Joe doesn't live with all of his family members all of the time but they get together on special occasions like Christmas and birthdays and they all go to Church together every week.

Joe's Dad is not part of his family. This makes him a little sad sometimes but he also says that he is very, very lucky to have other close family members who look after him.

People like his Great-Grandma, who he calls 'Nan'. Joe's Nan cared for him since he was a baby.

And people like his Uncle who plays football with him. They also once got matching pyjamas dressed like 'The Incredibles'.

Joe prays for his family and he knows that they pray for him. He thanks God for all of the good people in his life.
