

Endeavour Award 2021-2022

Neve

4PM

Neve has shown herself to be a kind, hard working and conscientious girl in 4PM. She has impressed me each day with her determination to improve and she gives her very best in all lessons. Neve has also shown herself to be a friendly and well-mannered girl who is a role model to others through her caring nature and compassion for others. She should be very proud of herself after a hugely successful year in 4PM.
