The role of parents and carers

St Oswald's believes that the responsibilities of parents is to ensure that their child has the correct uniform, PE kit and expectations of appearance as stated above, it should be clean, in good repair and the child's name written on all items.

If any parent has difficulties for any reason with fulfilling this request they are asked to speak to a senior member of staff to discuss their issues.

Children arriving to school with incorrect uniform may be given uniform from our supply of spares. The same system will apply to those children who do not bring PE kits. Continually arriving at school without appropriate uniform will result in parents being contacted.

We ask all parents and carers to support us in this school uniform policy by sending their child to school correctly dressed and ready for their daily schoolwork. No child should be made to stand out by breaking our school uniform policy, our aim is to ensure equality.

St. Oswald's is an inclusive school community. If there are genuine reasons why parents or carers want their child to wear clothes that differ from the school uniform, the school will look at such requests. Similarly, should an item of school uniform prove problematic for a pupil with disabilities then parents or carers are invited to draw this to the attention of the head teacher. We will ensure that we work with parents and carers to meet individual needs as far as possible.

If a child continually does not follow our uniform and presentation policy, parents/ carers will be invited to a meeting with school leadership to discuss the matter further and plan a way forward.

We will also support any families who are in need, by providing items of second-hand uniform, please contact Mrs Finch or Mrs Mahon regarding this.

School stockists are Tesco on line and the Uniform shop on Broadgreen Road. Ties are available from the school offices.

The role of Governors

It is for the governing body of a school to decide whether there should be a school uniform policy and if so what that should be. This flows from the duties placed upon all governing bodies by statute to ensure that school policies promote good behaviour and discipline amongst the pupil body. It is also for the governing body to decide how the uniform should be sourced.

The Department of Education strongly encourages schools to have a uniform as it can play a valuable role in contributing to the ethos of a school and setting an appropriate tone.

The governing body supports the head teacher in implementing the school uniform policy. It is the responsibility of the governors to ensure that the school uniform meets all regulations concerning equal opportunities.
